

I am writing because I feel that lifting the cross-ownership ban to further allow media consolodation does not serve the public interest.